As was expected, the opening of the baseball season in the two major leagues, despite the coldness of the in almost every instance, drew the largest crowds that have yet witnessed the first games of the series. Although the official figures have not been given out, the crowds that saw the champion White Sox-St. ed close to twenty thousand. The next largest audience was that which gath largest addience was that which gathered at the Polo Grounds in New York City for the Giants-Phililes game. The opener at this place was marked by the crowds overrunning the field in the register in the lead, causing Umpire Klem to forfeit the first league game of the season to the Quakers.

Undoubtedly the best sport was furnished by the Athletic Boston American League game in Philadelphia, where these teams went fourteen innings before either could put over the winning tally. The Beancaters finally trumphed by 8 to 6, the victory being mainly due to the fumbling of Murphy and timely hitting by the winners in the ending term. A noteworthy feature of this contest is the fact that two of the oldest and best known twirlers in baseball today—Waddell and Cy Young—officiated for Philadelphia and Boston 7espectively.

LAWMAKERS READY CAROLINA BEATS FOR THE ORIOLES VIRGINIA TECHS

Few Exceptions, Primed for To-Day's Game.

Richmond this afternoon for the first of Richmond this afternoon for the Lawrakers. During the past few weeks that the Orioles have been in training they have been going at a rapid pace, under the instruction of their new manager, and Manager Shaffer's aggregation will have to go some to beat them when they clash at the Broad Street Park at 4 O'clock.

All the locals, except Shaffer and Pitchers Still and Derby, are in prime condition, and they will be able to present a strong line-up for to-day's game. It has not yet been decided who will be on the firing line for Richmond, but it is probable that Long or Mulhall will serve 'em over. Derby is just recuperating from an attack of grip, which he got in the game with "Old Fox" Griffith's Highlanders on Friday, and Colonel Still's business arm is hardly limber enough to allow with to the used. BASEBALL REPORTS DURING SUMMER

The Times-Dispatch will make a spelal effort to cover amateur baseball this summer, and solicits managers and captains of local teams to send in accounts of all contests to the Sporting Editor. Communications must be written plainly, on one side only of the paper.

Challenges of teams and notices of the organization of nines in and about Richmond will be printed free of charge in these columns.

One of Richmond's two left-handed candidates for the pitching staff on the Lawmakers this season. Salve is from Providence, R. I., and when in good condition and in control of his nerves, is a promising young pitcher. Manager Shaffer has spoken favorably of him as one of the twirlers he will retain. He has plenty of speed, and his left-handed curves are very puzzling to the batsmen, as is evidenced by the number of men he strikes out when he pitches consistent ball. Salve may be used in the game t6-morrow afternoon.

VIRGINIANS GO DOWN IN DEFEAT

Couldn't Get Better Than One Win Out of Five Trics.

MILLER PUT UP GOOD RIDE

With Saddle Slipping, He Got Home First Clinging to Campaigner's Withers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—It was a sad day for the Virginia contingent at the Benning track this afternoon. Out of the five races in which horses, either owned or trained by Virginians rin there was only one which resulted in a victory for the Old Dominion turfmen.

Lady Isabel, running in the colors of the Columbia Stables, and trained by Woods Garth, won the two-year-old race. The price against her, however, was so short that practically no money was bet on her. She opened at one to three, and this was the best price that could ever be got against her.

The troubles of the Virginians began in the first race, when Theodore Coles sent Bobble Kean to the post for C. C. Smithson, the Washington turfman. Against Bobble Kean were Oraculum, Lotus Eater and Diamond Flush sent that mare to the post a favorite. Bobble was second choice, while Oraculum started as good as four to one about his chances.

Radtke, who had the mount on Oraculum, got him off well. Miller brought Diamond Flush forward promptly, and made the running with Oraculum for about half a mile. Here Diamond Flush blew up, and was never a contender afterwards. Bobble Kean, well ridden by Mounter the beauty. blew up, and was never a contender af-terwards. Bobble Kean, well ridden by Mountain, hung on resolutely, but was finally beaten out by Oraculum, and the Virginia crowd lost heavily in conse

Grazialo a Quitter. In the third race, a six-furlong dash, for three-year-olds and upward, the Colum-bia Stable was represented by Grazialo, trained by Billy Garth. This was the horse with which Garth expected to win the trained by Billy Garth. This was the horse with which Garth expected to win the Benning Handleap on the opening day. In to-day's race, with Radtke up, he was a hot favorite at fifteen to twenty. Miller, who had the mount on Campaigner, got that coit off well, and soon took a lead. At the turn Radtke brought Grazialo up on even terms with Campaigner, and the two raced together for a futlong. At one time it looked as if Grazialo would take the measure of Campaigner, as the latter was seen to drop back half a length.

Miller soon brought his horse up Miller soon brought his horse up again, however, and in a few strides Grazialo curled up and quit like a dog. Campaigner simply galloped home. After the race it was learned that Miller's saddle slipped from under him, and that this marvelous little lorseman rode his mount to victory clinging to the horse's withers with his knees. It was a wonderful piece of horsemanship. Grazialo barely lastof horsemanship, Grazialo barely last-ing long enough to finish second. In a few strides John Madden's Old Col-eny would have beaten him out for the place.

In the fourth race, a selling steeple-chase, for four-year-olds and upward, Virginla was represented by Charles Hurkamp's Flying Virginlan and Dion Refr's Listaway.
